

Nant Awen Getaways

Where in the heck are you?

DIRECTIONS

Nant Awen Romantic Getaways is easy to locate, a short distance off the main A470 in the delightful village of Carno.

Our postcode for directions is SY17 5JS, but hold up! Mid Wales isn't always satnav friendly, so I would definitely recommend having a glance at a map and over these directions just to make sure you're heading the right way!

Top Tip #1 First top tip! If you are driving to us via Oswestry or Shrewsbury it is worth noting that the SatNav will almost certainly send you over the mountain road when you get to Welshpool. It's not a road I would recommend, so stick to the main road and (gasp) ignore the SatNavs directions! Keep heading towards Newtown > Caersws > Carno

Directions from the village to your accommodation

If you are driving North into the village of Carno on the A470 take the next left after the Spar shop.

If you are driving South into the village of Carno on the A470 take the next right after the large factory on your left.

(Follow the "Cledan Valley" sign, the Cledan Valley yurts are on the same road as us a little further on so if you follow their signs you will pass our entrance eventually)

Drive along the lane for 0.8 miles until you reach a fork in the road, the road veers to the left up a steep hill but you should take the right hand fork in front of you. (Follow another "Cledan Valley" sign)

Drive for 120m to an entranceway sign posted "Nant Awen" follow the driveway down to the carpark where Siwan will meet you with your key.

Top Tip #2 Google! We're on Google Maps, so if you type us in you should get a handy little direct route from the village straight to our front door (we share a postcode with about 10 other houses up the lane so you aren't always guaranteed to land with us if you only use the postcode)

Additional Notes
